PRESIDENT'S REPORT

In my inaugural year as President, I would like to be able to report a number of senior grade premierships, and clearly if winning premierships is a barometer of a club's success, then the 1991/1992 has been an unremarkable one. To categorise the season in this way, however, would be grossly unfair with there being a number of significant developments both on and off the field which in many ways I believe have laid the groundwork for the Club to be a major force in the Sydney grade competition in the next decade.

The highlight of the playing season was undoubtedly the performance of the A.W. Green Shield team in winning this coveted trophy for the Club for the first time in over 30 years. The team's performance was in no small part due to it's preparation and management, and in this respect, congratulations must go to the management team, Bob Kennedy, Mark Hope and Bob Lind. The team was ably captained by Simon Couch, with every player in the squad of seventeen contributing to the team's overall success. It is a priority of the Club that all players who represented in this team will go on to play grade cricket for the Club.

On the grade scene, the Club was strengthened at the beginning of the season by the return of Phil Marks to the Club, with Phil playing a major part in the team's successes throughout the season. The recruitment of Michael Bevan was also significant, with the Club being very lucky to attract a player of Michael's calibre and potential. I am happy to report that despite limited appearances, Michael has settled in well with the Club, and in the district, and we can hopefully look forward to a long association.

Paul Wilson also joined the Club during the course of the season from the Australian Cricket Academy, and his inclusion has also considerably boosted the Club's playing strength.

With players of this calibre, one may well have expected First Grade to make the semi-finals, but it was only towards the end of the season that the team really played to it's ability, winning the last five games in succession and defeating the eventual premiers, Waverley, in the final round of the season. One can only lament what might have been had the team been able to win one of the earlier games in the season and secure a semi-final position.

From a personal point of view, one of the season's highlights has been the performances of three young players, all local juniors, in their initial First Grade season. Shawn Bradstreet, Miles Corish and Craig Glasscock each had outstanding debut seasons, as can be seen from the First Grade report and statistics.

The other grade sides also performed creditably throughout the season, with Second Grade being somewhat unlucky to also miss out on a semi-final position in the last round of the competition. A number of young players, some in their first season with the Club, made significant individual contributions and their continued development should see them progress through the grades.

My personal thanks and that of the Committee goes to all the Captains, Peter King and Greg Hill in First Grade, Tim Blank in Second Grade, Greg Boyer in Third Grade, David Patterson in Fourth Grade and Tom Spencer in Fifth Grade for their efforts throughout the season. I personally know full well the amount of time and commitment as well as responsibility that this position entails.

In his first season as Chairman of Selectors, Sam Mesite proved an outstanding success. Selecting five grade teams each week is no small feat, and Sam's availability and dedication to his job was outstanding.

On the coaching side, the Club was well served by Mark Hope, who worked in the area of skills development, as well as playing a role with the Green Shield and Poidevin Gray teams. Damian Bray was appointed practice coordinator for the season, and quickly became an integral part of the Club's practice sessions.

In summary, from a performance point of view, the Club can be reasonably satisfied with last season's results. However, if this time next year the Club is not able to boast a far greater presence in the finals in all grades, then the season would have to be viewed as a disappointing one.

Off the field, there were a number of significant developments during the course of the season.

At the commencement of the season, it became a priority of the new committee to source outside sponsors for the Club. No amateur sporting club such as ours can these days survive without sponsorship. Directly as a result of this drive, the Club was most successful in securing a number of sponsors, the benefits of this being reflected in the Treasurer's Report. The Club's major sponsor for the season was The Communications Depot, with one of their principals, Craig Martin, being a long time supporter of the Club. I would personally like to extend to the major sponsor and all the other sponsors involved with the Club, our gratitude for their financial support during the season immediately passed. Their contribution can in no way be under estimated, as it is only with sufficient funds that we as a Club are able to upgrade facilities, provide coaches, provide funds for junior development and return benefits to the players. As such, all these sponsors are worthy of our support. Particulars of the Club's sponsors for the season are detailed throughout this report.

Prior to the commencement of the season, the "Room at the Top" underwent a rejuvenation. This remodelling was done with the help of particular sponsors and the hard work of a number of the committee. The room now boasts various honour boards, trophy cabinets, current and historic photographs, and other Club and cricket memorabilia. During the season, the "Room at the Top" hosted a number of functions including the regular post match post mortems. It was also pleasing to see a number of supporters and past players frequent the venue. On behalf of the committee, I would openly extend to all supporters, past players and members an open invitation to the "Room at the Top" on any Saturday during the season.

This season for the first time in many years the Club hosted an international fixture with the Sri Lankan World Cup team playing a lead up fixture prior to the World Cup against a Manly President's XI. The President's XI consisted of three local players, Phil Marks, Shawn Bradstreet and Greg Hill, as well as being boosted by internationals such as Chris Broad and David Capel, and fringe Sheffield Shield players in Greg Macleay, Brad McNamara, Phil Alley and Geoff Milliken. The day was an outstanding success with a crowd in the order of over 4000 people in attendance. The organising committee for the match did a great job on very short notice, and demonstrated the fact that there is no reason why Manly Oval should not host similar international fixtures in the years to come.

This year the committee put in train a junior development program, with such being overseen by Tony Scanlon, with assistance from Mark Hope and David Patterson. Elsewhere in this report a detailed summary is provided of the program's achievement for the season. Funds for the program were provided by way of a specific development grant from the New South Wales Cricket Association, and the Association is to be commended for this initiative in the promotion and development of cricket throughout the metropolitan area. To Tony Scanlon and the other members of his team, congratulations on this year's effort.

A significant factor in the Club's performance throughout the season both on and off the field has been the contribution of the committee. To Ian Lamb in his capacity as Secretary, Andrew Fraser as his Assistant, Geoff Rodgers as Treasurer and to the members of the committee, Bob Lind, Bill Bradstreet, Tim Blank, Tony Scanlon, Greg Hayes and Andy Stewart (retired), I extend my personal thanks and gratitude for their time and effort throughout the year. In this regard, mention must be made of the contribution of Don "Dollars" Sellin, who week in week out, year after year also makes a major contribution to the running of the Club.

At this point, it would be remiss if comment was not made on the retirement of Greg Hill. Greg, as a player, has had an association with the Club for over 20 seasons, and his contributions as a player are well recorded in the Club's statistics contained in the report. Greg, throughout his career, however, contributed much more than just the statistics and his presence as a playing member of the Club will be sorely missed. The Club wishes Greg every success in his retirement and we have no doubt that Greg will continue his involvement for many years to come.

What of the future? On the immediate horizon, the situation regarding Manly Oval still remains unresolved, with it being likely there will be future negotiations with the Council in the coming months.

As indicated earlier in this report, sponsorship is vital in order to ensure the Club's overall performance level, with the search for suitable sponsors therefore being an ongoing one.

In general, however, I believe that with continued commitment and responsible administration, the Club can look forward to and for that matter should expect a high level of success in forthcoming seasons.

To the Members of the Manly Warringah District Cricket Club, Inc.

Ladies and Gentlemen,

The Management Committee takes pleasure in submitting for your consideration and adoption the 114th Annual Report together with the Club's Financial Statement for the year ended 30 April 1992.

The Club continued its custom of entering teams in the five grades of the Sydney Cricket Association's Tooheys Grade Cricket Competition as well as the Poidevin-Gray and A W Green Shield Competition.

The overall performance of our various teams were satisfactory in that we were able to recover sufficiently from the debacle of the previous season to regain a "top half" position in the club championship. Whilst a top half spot is still well below our achievements for the late 80's it does provide a springboard for the coming year.

Our shining light was the Green Shield team who won their competition in spectacular fashion. The manner in which they won the final could best be described as awesome and the Randwick players must wonder what hit them.

The various team results were Firsts 5th, Seconds 5th, Thirds 9th, Fourths 13th, Fifths 12th, PG's 6th (Northern Division) and Green Shield 1st (both Northern and overall).

It was a worry that results fell away somewhat in our lower grades however the causes of this hopefully have been addressed for the coming season.

The year has seen considerable change in the administration of the club. All observers have seen the improvements at the "Room at the Top" and the display of club memorabilia now in place. Well - it would be fair to say - the changes of attitude to sponsorship and money matters, junior development, social activities, clothing and gear, overseas tours and more have all undergone a restructuring program of about equal degree. It will take a season or two for some of these changes to become obvious however be assured they are in place.

One may ask did the need for change reflect on previous committees - the answer is a definite no. When you look at club results for 1987/88, 1988/89 and 1989/90 seasons you can be assured that it could only have happened if the club had its cricket right. However - There has been a big upheaval in Sydney grade cricket. The changes of recent years promoted by the S.C.A. has seen a radical change to the professionalism of all clubs. The days of the traditionally strong clubs and corresponding weaker clubs is virtually over. The strong clubs of the future will be those that work at it the hardest.

This year's Committee has responded to the challenge and has put in countless hours of work behind the scenes to prepare the way and the writer can only be full of praise for their efforts and achievements.

Returning to cricket - rather than include in this report a brief resume of the performance by each team, your attention is drawn to the captains report accompanying each teams statistics. In doing this however it would be remiss if a special mention was not made of the A W Green Shield performance.

The team was managed by Bob Kennedy who worked tirelessly through the program of assembling the players, preparing them for competition and then guiding them all the way. Few people are aware of the hours of work and sacrifice this takes and all credit goes to Bob. The team spirit he and his helpers Bob Lind and Mark Hope were able engender amongst an absolute first class bunch of young men was a lesson to all of us who were privileged to witness it. Led by Simon Couch the team has names such as Couch, Nealon, Clemow, Reeves, Cox just to nominate a few that will dominate Manly cricket for years to come. The boys in this team deserve every accolade they have received and it is to be hoped they enjoyed their end of season trip to Brisbane to play the winners of that city's equivalent competition.

On the downside, problems confronting the club are those relating to playing fields. The Sydney Cricket Association continue to pressure us to find a third turf wicket whilst Manly Council still has to overcome the economic constraints of the times that makes the upkeep of Manly Oval and Grahams Reserve a burden to which we are going to have to contribute - and contribute significantly.

Financially the club can report a profit of $8,450 and your attention is drawn to the Treasurers Report. The most significant increase in revenue comes from sponsorship and it is the financial accounts of the club that reflects in money terms the changes of attitude in administration this year.

Sponsorship represents the additional financial resource that the club needs to generate the cash required to remain viable in these changing times. Accordingly we cannot place too much emphasis on the need for every member and friend of our club to either actively or passively promote all of our sponsors at every possible chance. It is not a big thing to ask of us however it is an enormous obligations for us to perform. Our main sponsors were :

The Communications Depot
Tooheys (through NSWCA)
Unisys
Carpet City / Harbord West Cellars
Manly Warringah Cabs / Shell
Harbour Ford
Australian Meat Brokers (N. Johnston)
AAMI Car Insurance
Sparke Helmore & Withycombe, Solicitors
Spinner's, Cremorne
M.M.I., Insurance
Lui's Italian Cuisine & Pizza
Manly Twin Cinemas
A Taste of India Restaurant
A.M.P. Neutral Bay (S. Contractor)

Credit must also be given to our Social Committee. They were continually active and it is their efforts that enables our the camaraderie developed between the players that they will never forget as the years pass by.

Activities of note they organised were the Trivia Night, Karaoki Night, Harbour Cruise, Send Offs to Peter King and Andrew Stewart, Presentation Night, Melinda Gainsford Olympic Games Sponsorship, South Wales Association cricket match, Past Vs Present.

The largest function undertaken was the promotion of the Sri Lanka Vs the Manly Warringah Presidents Eleven as part of the World Cup Series. The day was an outstanding success (helped by good weather) and was an excellent follow up to the Trinity Cup matches of the previous years. Whilst wanting to remain humble, the club does these days very well.

To conclude the report the following words of appreciation are made.

Our team captains Peter King, Tim Blank, Greg Boyer, David Patterson, Tom Spencer, Miles Corish and Simon Couch for their lonely task of taking cricket to the opposition.

Merv and Louise for their work on the playing wickets and the practice wickets - they have to be honorary club members.

Greg Hill as our club captain for his efforts at the player level - Greg has also announced his retirement as a player after a distinguished career that ensures him a place in the folklore of the club.

The Manly Daily through David Moore and Cathie Holland for the media cover they gave us all the year. Thanks also must go to Phil Marks and his helper for their weekly article.

Tom Hart and his helpers with the schools competition in respect to which a report is included in this book. Our junior development committee are active in this field and hopefully can give Tom a hand with his task.

Our Chairman of Selectors Sam Mesite, our trainer Damien Bray and our skills coach Mark Hope. To these fellows, particularly the Chairman of Selectors, we hand the responsibility of the cricket image of the club. Their input is invaluable.

Others to who we owe a word of appreciation are Don Sellin for the practise facilities, John Skiller for the first grade scoring and John Lannon for help with the Room at the Top. To this list should go many more names such as the parents who supported the Green Shield team and the Poidevin Gray team, Committeemen who took on other duties such as Geoff Rogers the first grade manager, Bill Bradstreet for the Poidevin Gray, Bob Lind for just about everything - however - to try and do this would see some deserving person not mentioned - so - to all of you we appreciate and thank you for what you did.

For and on behalf of the Committee.

TREASURER'S REPORT AND FINANCIAL STATEMENT

At the completion of the 1991/92 season, the Club finished with an excess of Income over Expenditure of $8,450.50.

An amount of $5,520.39 is held in an Investment Account and the Club's Trading Account had a credit of $3,441.37. It is to be also noted that an amount of $3,144.00 has been expended to provide for cricket balls for the season 1992/93.

This pleasing result of the year can largely be attributed to the professional manner upon which the Finance Committee attained sponsorship funds. In this regard, Gary Flowers and Andrew Fraser sought sponsors, offering them various attractive packages.

To the sponsors, thank you for your wonderful support during the season. Without your involvement, it is very difficult for a Club of this nature to function and your efforts are certainly greatly appreciated. We look forward to furthering these associations next season.

To the non-playing members, thank you also for your interest and support.

Income from social functions increased due to the excellent efforts of Andrew Fraser and the Social Committee. Andrew never takes anything for granted when organising these functions.

This year the the Social Committee arranged the following functions:-

Karaoke Night, Film Night, Trivia Night, Peter King and Andy Stewart's farewell, Christmas Party - Harbour Cruise, Presentation Night, Greg Hill's Retirement Night.

Attendance at the majority of these functions was excellent. The Presentation Night at Balgowlah Golf Club attracted 118 people, which according to the "die hards", was the best turnout in years.

The displaying of the memorabilia and the carpeting of the Room at the Top made it an attractive venue for a drink after each game. Congratulations to Bob Lind for his workmanship in making the cabinet displaying the cricket clothing.

To all the players, Committee members and friends who assisted in the Sri Lanka game, many thanks, as it was a very enjoyable and successful day.

Special thanks to Nerida Bradstreet, the Corish family and Jim Evans etc for the wonderful afternoon teas throughout the season.

To John Skiller, many thanks for scoring during the season and providing the team with their statistics.

COACHING VIEWPOINT

Before I launch into comments about the 1991/92 season, I want to thank the Manly Club for the opportunity of coaching last season. The lessons I learned were very insightful.

How can I add value to my cricket career and as a consequence add value to the Manly Club and possibly higher if you're good enough? These are the rhetorical questions every player needs to ask before the season begins. These are some of the practical ways. Your previous season's performance had to be evaluated realistically. Points of performance improvement must be clearly stated. For example, a smoother bowling run up, a straighter back left, too much bottom hand, not watching the ball could be the cause of mediocre performance. The off season is an excellent opportunity to correct faults. Working with your friends and/or a coach would be invaluable. Sometimes your friends are your most effective mirror.

Arriving at pre-season, net practice in sound physical condition is a pre-requisite for a positive season. We don't want anorexics or Billy Bunkers, or guys reaching for the oxygen after half a lap. You still have another month to put in before the season begins. If you're overweight, your performance will be affected and you mightn't reach peak fitness until January/February, what a waste.

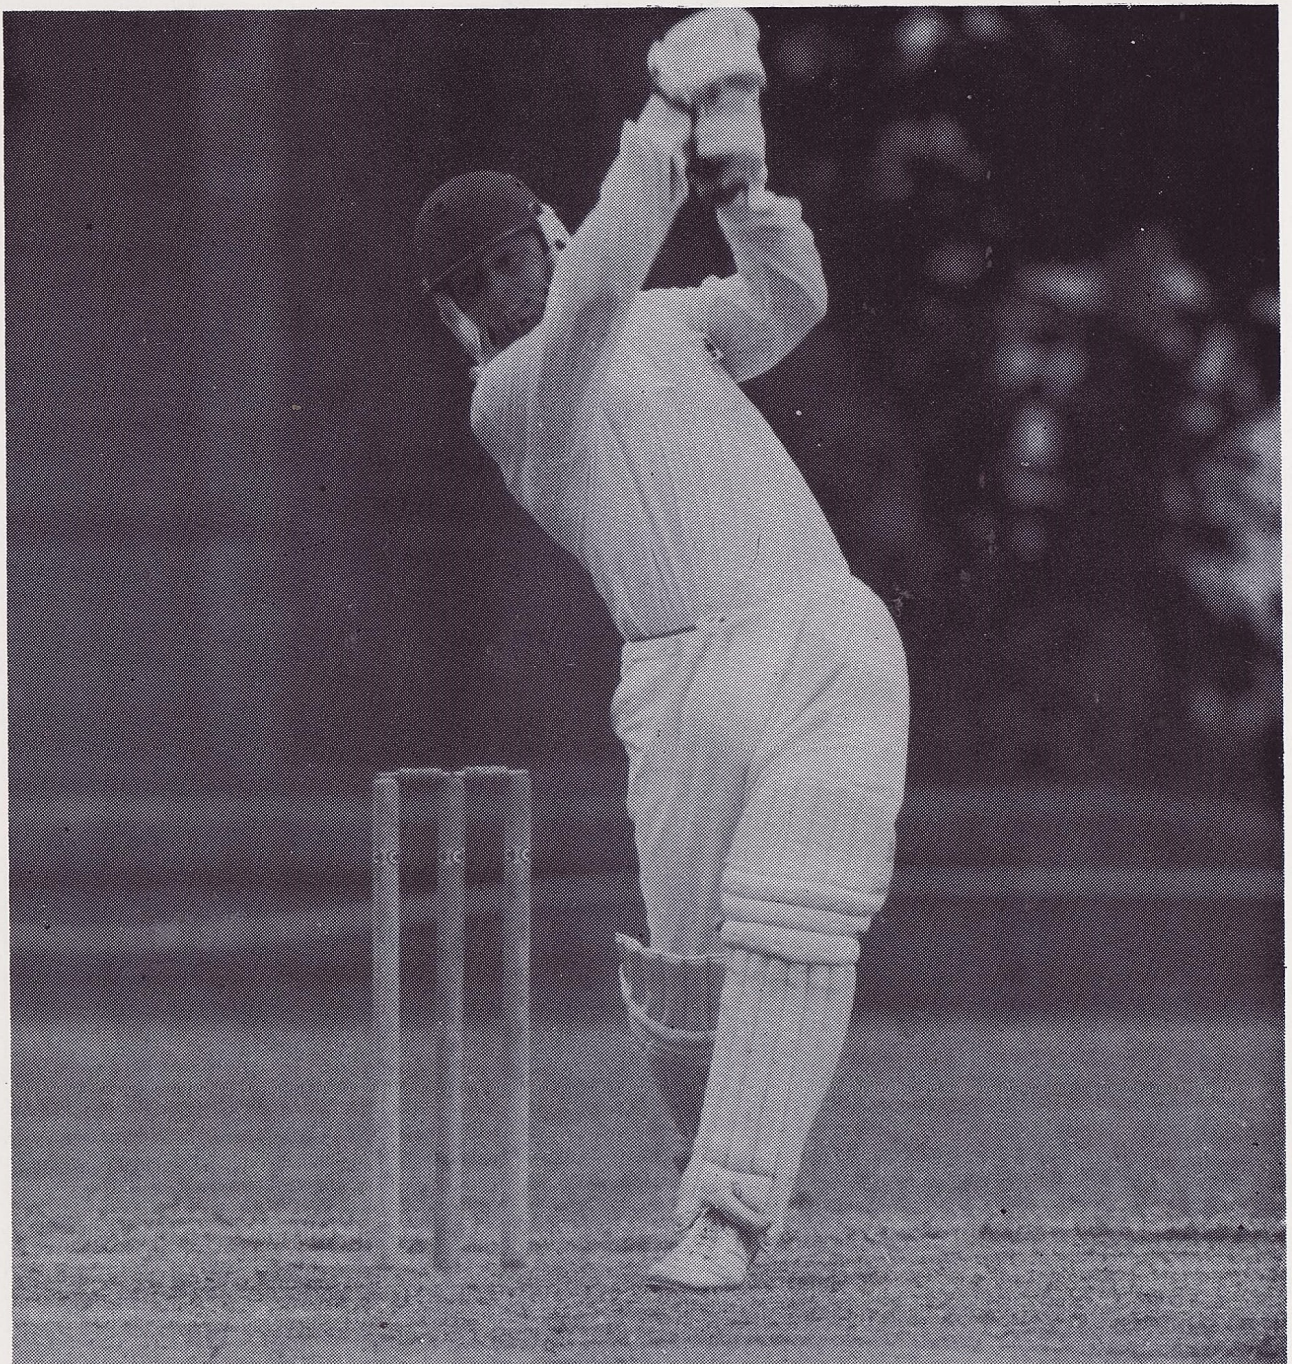

My suggestion to the Club is that a simple contract be drawn which all players who want to play sign and adhere to. It's simplicity is based on habit and ritual. The habit part is about laps and stretches they have to complete before practice begins. Their attendance at practice one night per week minimum, unless their captain is notified prior to practice night. Their commitment to a bowling (bowlers only), batting and fielding intensity during practice time. The ritual is about all the guys at practice getting together to sing a song, (the Club song's probably banned), at the end of each practice to create a harmony and bonding amongst the players. Then the cricket can begin. You could appoint a song leader from the ranks of the longer and celebrated voices. The resonance of singing is a powerful way of bringing people together. The spirit of the Club is very important, and singing can help here.

OTHER TIPS

Spend some time visualising your performance - use the breath to relieve any anxiety. It is essential to find the stillness inside you so you become focused. As a bowler or batsman, you're in charge of your environment, take these precious seconds to steady yourself and reassert your authority in the moment. My view is that there's often a paper thin difference between the top hundred players in the country/state. All these techniques are basically sound. The difference is the mental attitude players bring to their game. Their ability to handle seconds of real pressure is the distinction and separation point here. Concentration and persistence often outshine charisma and brilliance. Another vital factor is to contrive to work on developing a SOUND TECHNIQUE that doesn't give in to attack. That's another important KEY, and the bases of your self-esteem in the game. Look at how the masters do things. Your learning can begin here.

A NON-CRICKET TIP - You won't be playing cricket forever. You have locked away in that body of yours, a creative soul. It might be in music, writing, singing, art, dancing, woodwork, acting (most of you do that anyway on a cricket field) etc. Finding that creativity is a way of balancing other aspects of your life and very rewarding, so go for it and forget the exclamations of your friends.

CLUB CAPTAIN'S REPORT

Once again we lament on another season gone, one which offered so much and in the end delivered so little, that is as far as Premierships go. On the positive side, there is so much more to offer. The Committee pre-season did a fantastic job obtaining Damian Bray as fitness co-ordinator and attracting players of the calibre of Michael Bevan, Paul Wilson, to mention a couple.

Everybody seemed to be confident and eager that this season would be a successful one. Everything seemed to be going in the right direction, desire, motivation, team spirit, so why didn't we bring home any trophies? For some inexplicable reason at the start of the season, we seemed to doubt our own ability to win, but once we started to believe in ourselves, the results were far more promising. Cricket is the kind of game where confidence is your own ability and that of your team mates is a prime requisite, not in an arrogant way but in a belief that you are going to win and expect to win.

There were some exceptional performances last season and it would be remiss of me not to mention a few. Miles Corish's promotion to First Grade was nothing less than sensational, 140 not out against Fairfield set the trend for victory and a great season personally for Miles. Three First Grade hundreds in his first year in First Grade augers well for the future and we hope for the Club's sake that Miles continues in the same vein in future seasons.

We have all spoken about the strength and potential of Shawn Bradstreet, I only wish I could play more cricket with this guy. His zest and desire to win and see the team and Club do well is inspirational. To see the players as they progress through the ranks is something I will miss very much. Players such as David Ford who made such a good fist of his First Grade debut and also later innings should be a catalyst for all you guys wanting to play higher grades.

The opportunity is there if you want to grab it, just quietly and confidently believe in your own ability, work hard, encourage other team members, listen to other players and I am sure success will come your way.

To the ladies who provided not just afternoon teas, but support we thank you, to Geoff Rodgers, Gary Flowers and his Committee, I thank you for all the help and support you have given me, it truly is a great Club and one that I am very proud to be a part of. To all the players I have had the pleasure of playing with, thank you for the memories, I'll shall always treasure them. To Sam Mesite and Phil Marks, thanks for being there when I needed guidance and support and most importantly, I wish you every success in the future. See you at the Pacific.

FIRST GRADE REPORT 1991/92 SEASON

Upon review of the recent season, it could be seen as a roller coaster ride. The team contained experience and youth and could well have expected more than the eventual result. We had some excellent results as a team and individually, combined with inconsistency and a couple of poor results.

The team was never a settled unit and this continual change of personnel and washed out weekends resulted in the 1st XI not making the finals despite a late charge. I know, given the opportunity, the Manly XI, could have given any team in the competition a real go.

The performances of the experienced (old) players like "Skid" Marks and "Wally" Hill were first class. The inclusion of Bevan and Wilson in the team will also have long term benefits along with creditable performances from "the Evans brothers" Ford, "Sack" Glassock and "Jughead" Gainsford. These players have all had a taste of First Grade cricket and need to consolidate their performances on a more regular basis.

Two players who deserve special mention are "Mintie" Corish and "Big Fringe" Bradstreet. Miles showed his class with some wonderful innings and now must move into the next league of commitment and consistency. Shaun Bradstreet was the outstanding player of the year and now commands respect amongst grade ranks. "Winger" has great athletic potential and with his desire to succeed will continue to be a prime mover in Manly teams of the future. Congratulations to you both.

I am sorry to say our inconsistency defeated us in the end but the basis is there for a great future for Manly Cricket Club.

I must thank a few people for their contribution. To Gary "Storky" Flowers, Andrew "Chicken Legs" Fraser and Committee. I must commend you for providing the facilities and environment for a great club attitude. To Sammy "have another beer" Mesite and fellow selectors for their commitment to the Club and not individuals. To Geoff, Bob, Billy and Neridah for their enthusiasm, cold beer and scones and to John Skiller for his devotion to the score book.

I have always been a team club oriented person and as such, I will always remember my time at Manly fondly as you have a wonderful club both in cricket aptitude and as mates.

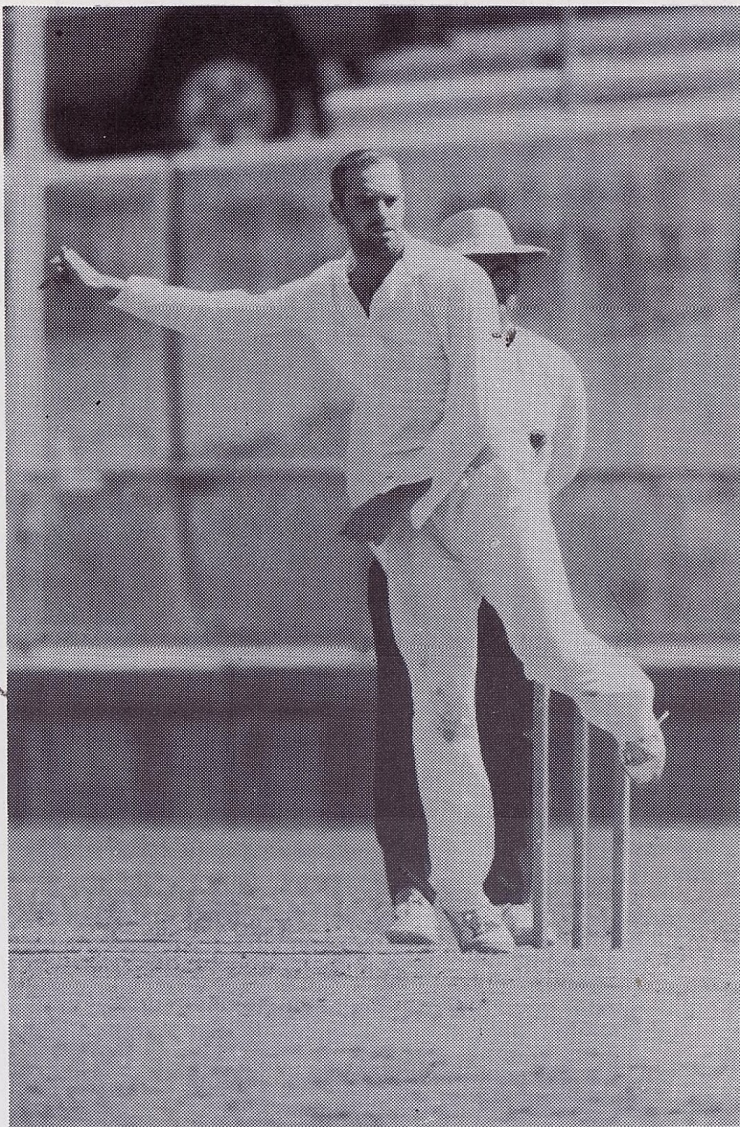

Anytime any of you are in Melbourne, I will happily renew old acquaintances and pow a jug of beer on my head with you.

Good luck for the future.

Peter King.

SECOND GRADE REPORT 1991/92 SEASON

It gives me great pleasure to submit this particular report concerning another cricket season gone by, which although on paper seems rather unrewarding, certainly promises much in the future.

Credit for the noticeable changes within the Club must go to Gary Flowers and his committee who worked tirelessly to ensure Manly one again became competitive at the highest level. As a result, both First and Second Grade recorded good seasons, both finishing just shy of a semi-final spot.

As captain of the Second Grade side, 5th position for the second year running was a little disappointing, however, just as the Club went through some major changes, so did the playing personnel in our top sides. This was the most satisfying aspect of my season.

To witness the development of Shawn Bradstreet, Miles Corish, Craig Glassock, David Ford and Trunk on a first hand basis from good Second Grade players to successful first teams members was brilliant.

Bordering on a similar feeling of satisfaction was watching Sean Parkinson, Brad Pamp and Rob Parkinson succeed in our side after spending far too much time in Third Grade. Let me say that these particular players will now find the transition much more comfortable and whoever captains the Second Grade side next season can rest assured he will receive 100% effort from each one.

Without delving into tedious facts and figures there are a few players who deserve accolades.

Geoff Tucker is the first. It is not often that a player commences a season in one particular grade and finishes that year 2 or 3 grades higher. Tucks is one exception. It is also seldom that a player enters a team and immediately makes an impact both on and off the field. Again Tucks is the exception. As a captain, his contribution at all times was excellent. One particular batting expedition at Pratten Park still remains in the memory and was reminiscent of Scott Grace at his best. Needless to say that Manly won that game outright, thanks largely to a blistering half century from not many balls from Tucks. Fittingly, Tucks was runner-up in the Players' Player award to a class act like Shawn Bradstreet, and won the all-rounder of the year. Higher representation is just around the corner.

I think Bruce Minnett showed everyone within the Club that his ability and attitude has now developed into a genuine willingness to succeed. Bruce took his initial selection in Third Grade on the Chin and proceeded to plunder enormous quantities of runs and take plenty of wickets resulting in a well earned First Grade spot. Bruce's contribution to me as his captain was also first class with his enormous will to win often pulling his team mates to higher levels of performance.

After a fairly uncharacteristic start to the season, Anthony Dignan then hit his best form in Second Grade, both with the bat and gloves. It seems Digs' former club, Gordon, always pay for his mistreatment, this time Digs smashed one of the fastest centuries ever seen before rushing to a wedding. Digs will ensure that the quality of wicket keeping in First Grade remains of the highest standard.

Throughout last season, 28 players were selected in Second Grade - each and every one making significant contributions in one way or another. Injury, unavailability and the subsequent unsettled nature of our side went a long way towards reaping havoc. In hindsight, 5th position was a commendable result, and had one particular result gone our way in the penultimate round, semi-final cricket would have eventuated. This was not to be, but we all live to fight another day.

Special thanks to our major sponsor, The Communications Depot for their magnificent support both financially and in providing trophies and prizes for the team winners, and to all other Club sponsors for 1991/92.

Thanks also to the many Mums and Dads who assisted with our teas and supported our cause throughout and to the famous scoreboard attendants, Simon Turner, James Smealie and Pat Derrin. Of course without such support, a captain's job would be a complete nightmare.

Here's to a 1992/93 success.

THIRD GRADE REPORT 1991/92 SEASON

Looking back on the season, one is left pondering on what might have been. The team on paper was very strong every week, and with the right conditions, I believe we could have been holding up the Third Grade Shield. Instead, we missed out on making the semi finals by one win.

If one analyses the games during the season, that one win was well within our reach in a number of games. Unfortunately, we did not have the killer instinct that is vital for the close games. That killer instinct must be borne by the individual, and is a necessary ingredient within a team's make-up if it is to succeed. I don't believe we had enough of this. Vital losses to Gordon, Mosman and St George were examples of when we snatched defeat from the jaws of victory. These games turned out to be very costly indeed.

The team was represented by 24 players during the season, with 11 players playing 3 games or less. This left us with a nucleus of 13 players that turned out for the side for most of the season.

The top of the batting order was changed around during the season, with a consistent opening partnership hard to find. However, three players displayed the necessary sharp reflexes and skill to make the opening batting position their domain. One of these players, Brad "I got a medal" Pamp, was thrown into the position and developed into one of the team's most reliable and best batsmen throughout the season. With a maiden grade ton against U.N.S.W., and an aggressive 64 vs Waverly, Brad's opening batting form was one of the highlights of the season. Now Brad has a grade ton under his belt, he should capitalise on the starts he gets and make the 20's and 30's into big scores. The 'rush of blood' syndrome must be eliminated from his game to ensure these large scores.

Sean "BP-The Quiet Achiever" Parkinson enjoyed a successful, brief period with Third Grade. Sean's elegant cover drives combined with his mature batting sense gave the top order the backbone it needed. Sean's scores of 66 and 32 in rounds 3 and 4 earnt him the well deserved promotion to Second Grade where he performed admirably. I believe Sean's batting talent can take him to even higher grades.

Brian "Clem" Celmow joined Third Grade late in the season after enjoying success in Fourth Grade. That success continued in Third Grade in what can only be described as an outstanding performance. With scores of 60, 30, 5 and 81 in his four digs, Brian displayed batting prowess way beyond his years. The most pleasing aspect of Brian's batting, apart from his array of strokes, is the mature way he goes about his batting. Brian will not give his wicket away easily, and will patiently wait until he is seeing the ball well before his range of strokes are displayed. Patience is one of the hardest things to control when batting. If Brian continues with the patience and concentration displayed during those digs, a cricket future that is only limited by his ambitions is assured.

Anthony "Splinter" Morton's contribution to the team can only be described as extraordinary. Anthony was the deserved winner of the batting honours during the season, with an aggregate total of 346 runs at an average of 38.4. Anthony was called upon to bat anywhere from Number 1 to Number 11, with 5 and 6 being his favoured spots. During these reshuffles, "Splinter" did not utter one complaint. Anthony is the type of cricketer a captain loves to have in his team. He has loads of talent, an amusing sense of humour and unlimited enthusiasm. However, there were times during the season when this enthusiasm was misdirected. One such occasion occurred against Campbelltown, when it was discovered that Anthony had gone A.W.O.L. prior to the game. Once tracked down in bed, it was found that his bedroom clock that was running 2 hours slow was responsible for his enthusiastic slumber. This incident, combined with other late appearances against Fairfield and North Sydney and numerous missed trainings, made Anthony the main sponsor for the end of season B-B-Q. On a serious note, Anthony clearly has the ability to go much higher in the game. What is needed is more self discipline with respect to arriving at the game and turning up to practice. Without this discipline, Anthony will continue to lose opportunities and disappoint not only himself, but also his teammates.

John "Scotty" Scott was one of the quiet achievers of the season. After starting off in Fourth Grade, John made the transformation to Third Grade, made a couple of scores including a 51 n.o. vs Petersham, and found himself in Second Grade, where he made the most of his limited opportunities. However, John was heartbroken about not playing Third Grade, and came down to visit us for the final three games! John's ability is well known, and when he is in form, it is a pleasure to watch. Unfortunately, John had one of those seasons where form was there one game, gone the next, then back again. I hope next season John can string together the big scores that he is very capable of, which will ensure he will be promoted up from Third Grade for good.

One of the main reasons the team did not fulfil it's potential was due to the poor batting performances during critical periods of the season. Two of the main culprits were the 'elder statesmen' of the team, myself and Ken Pitcher. Both of us had seasons with the bat that can only be described as below average. Ken and I know we can do much better than the results for the season show, and I'm sure Ken will have the same desire as I do to make amends next season. Thanks again Ken for your support when the season got tough, it was much appreciated.

Russell "Aren't you Ken Rosewall?" Murray had a very frustrating time in Third's this season. A proven performer, Russell always looked good at the crease, with a score always looming. Unfortunately, Russell was on the way back to the pavilion on a number of occasions with one loose shot. Once these loose shots are controlled, Russell's technique will ensure runs are scored. Russell is a great team man, and a pleasure to have in one's side.

Geoff "Sludgeguts" Tucker is a player that is one of the rare finds of the game. It is amazing how Geoff can fit so much into a weekend that includes a game of cricket. Most player's social habits do not combine well to make their sporting commitments successful. Geoff has the amazing ability to increase his social functions so that his sporting results improve. A classic example of this occurred against Gordon. Geoff scored 36 runs and took 7 for 44 all with only one and a half hours sleep in a beaten up Holden. The 1991/92 season has been a great one for Geoff. After starting the season in Fourth's, instant promotion was required after winning the first two player of the round awards. His form continued in Third's, warranting promotion to Second's where Geoff became one of the team's leading players. Congratulations on a great season, and may you continue your success and push for First Grade.

Simon "Sofa" Couch had a successful season this year. Simon captained the Green Shield extremely well to its first win since Mike Pawley was leader. Along with this win, Simon also made various representative teams including a State cap. Simon's Third Grade season was a mixture of continued learning, frustration and satisfaction. Simon started off the Third Grade season, by his own standards, out of form. However, with the continued hard work put in at practice, the consistency and confidence returned after Xmas. Simon's batting form was solid, with a promotion up the order only a matter of time. Simon's bowling is developing very well, with a 'flipper' hopefully being unveiled next season. My only advice to Simon is, don't take all the advice people give you to heart. Listen to them, then pick and choose the right actions. Too many options will make it confusing. Keep it simple and let your natural talent combined with continued practice get your results.

Mark "Tails" Taylor was the other main 'spin twin'. Mark has only been playing cricket for a few seasons, but has shown enough potential to play much higher grades. Along with Bert Pierce, Mark would be the most prodigious spinner of the ball in the Club. Mark is now learning that flight, and not just spin, is the way to bamboozle batsmen. He was unlucky not to take more wickets during the season, with sound bowling effects producing sparse results at the start of the season. Now a well established Third Grader, if Mark continues to practice constantly and curb his aggression when the time warrants it, he will reap the rewards. P.S. He is also known to open the batting on rare occasions!

The last, but by no means least, group of cricketers that must be mentioned are our 'quickies'. The trio was made up of Tai "BULA!" Batina, Jason "One more over please Butch" Martin and Rob "Tongue Sambo" Parkinson. These guys were the success story of the season, with a total of 67 wickets between them.

Tai epitomises how cricket should be played. He will never give in, he always gives 110%, he produces results when required and he is always happy. One of the most popular members of the team, it is hard to forget Tai's huge smile after beating a batsman all ends up. When Tai has his rhythm going, he can be very quick and dangerous. A more than handy opening bowler that will play higher. Tai's batting is also noteworthy, with huge hitting his trademark. Everyone who witnessed his hit against Waverly at Trumper Park will not forget it. Clearing the siteboard still on the way up, the ball passed over the roofs of two terraced houses before landing.

Jason's efforts during the year were very much underrated. More often than not, Jason would tie up the batsmen at one end, to find the wickets falling at the other end. Jason's technique is very similar to Terry Alderman's, and he has now the ability to move the ball both ways. Jason is one of the Club's most dedicated cricketers, with attendance at most practices. With this continued commitment, Jason can look forward to a very successful upcoming season.

Rob Parkinson's bowling performance in Third's this year has shown he has really come of age as a grade bowler. With a 26 wicket haul from just 7 occasions, his performance speaks for itself. Rob has now learnt how to change the pace of the ball with great effect, and this has combined with his ability to move the ball has given him the desired results. An outstanding performance for the year, with the deserved best bowler honour. Congratulations Rob, you have even the distinction of being classified as an opening batsmen. Continue the good work.

Thanks must also be given to the other players who contributed during the year. Bruce Minnett, Darren Benson, Greg Pierce, Craig Curry, Greg Hayes, Angus Johnston, Lee Pedrola, Ross Drury, David Ford and Andrew Fraser all contributed to the results and fun had throughout the year.

I would also like to thank the parents and supporters whose encouragement made the season that more much enjoyable. To Robyn Couch, who looked after the teas for most of the season, a special thank you. To the other ladies, including Jan Benson, Bronwyn Boyer, Chris Clemow and Melinda Gainsford, thank you for your continued service and support during the season. Without this support, the team and the Club could not function.

The final thank you, and it is a big one, goes to my manager Don "Dollars" Sellin. Without the aid of Dollars (excuse the pun), the Club would be in dire straights. Along with his help at practice, he performs duties that most players don't think about. From organising covers on the pitch, to ensuring averages are kept up to date and ringing in the scores, this man is an invaluable member of the Club. Dollars, thank you for all your help and efforts in making my first season as captain an extremely enjoyable experience. I hope you are back on deck next season.

FOURTH GRADE REPORT 1991/92 SEASON

After a promising start, winning 2 of the first 3 matches, the Fourth Graders experienced a disappointing season, finishing in 13th position. A reflection on the season reveals that we only bowled out 4 teams and this was where the main problem lied. Our bowlers toiled honestly all season, but we just lacked enough penetration to pressure the top teams. The support of our bowlers in the catching department also left something to be desired, and this is an area which all players (this writer included) need to work on.

However, to reflect on our disappointments for too long, would be to overlook a number of fine individual performances and player developments throughout the season.

Geoff Tucker started on fire, with an unbeaten century against Randwick followed by an outstanding bowling performance of 14-46 to lead us to outright victory against Balmain. When Geoff deservedly won promotion, the bowling attack was led admirably by Rudi Burattini with 33 wickets including 6-59 vs Uni of NSW. Rudi was clearly our best bowler all year, a fact reflected in his winning of the Fourth Grade bowling award. Rudi shared the new ball with a number of players, Darren Bradstreet, Michael Osbourne, Morgan Youell and Pat Kelly, all of whom won promotion following good performances in Fifth Grade.

Darren Bradstreet was developing well, getting better with each match. He bowled genuinely quick against Mosman. Unfortunately, a back injury sustained in this match brought his season to a premature end. Pat Kelly joined us late in the season, bowling very well without luck, his natural leg cutter consistently beating the edge. Pat's batting added great depth to the team, displaying some big hitting against North Sydney. "Sticks" Osbourne was one who suffered more than most from our catching lapses, but he along with Morgan Youell never gave less than 100%. They were also two of the best trainers in the Club.

The spin bowling cupboard of the Fourth's was bare for a large part of the season. Mark Taylor and Darren Benson contributed well, "Tails" taking 6 wickets off 33 consecutive overs at Mosman and Darren 4-30 against minor premiers Waverley (he should wear those Bulldogs socks every week), but they both spent much of the season in higher grades.

One of the highlights of the season for me was the development of the Central Coast duo, Brian Clemow and Andrew Nealon. Brian started tentatively, but gradually gained confidence as he adjusted to the difference between junior and grade cricket. After Christmas, he was almost unstoppable, a string of good scores seeing him promoted to Third's, where he promptly reeled off scores of 60 and 81. Brian justifiably won the Fourth Grade batting award. Andrew was our wicket keeper throughout the season and he, like Brian improved with each match. Andrew's size (or lack of it) was often an amusement to the opposition, but he quickly won their respect with his skill and determination. He batting at No 7 and 8 pulled us out of trouble on a number of occasions, and I am sure he will be looking to move up the order in the future.

Craig Currie and Greg Pierce were the other mainstays of our batting. Both performed consistently without cracking it for a really big score. Craig finished second in the averages, the highlight of his season being an excellent 60 against Mosman. He also shared an excellent partnership with Greg (who made 77) against a Gordon attack which was the best we faced this season. Greg's reliability in the slip cordon was a bonus for his captain.

Neil Gray and Darren Reeves both joined up after Christmas, Neill following a succession of high scores in Fifth's and Darren after a successful Green Shield campaign. Both acquitted themselves well, Neil with a fine half century against Campbelltown and Darren with 48 against North Sydney coming in at 4-18.

Russell Murray and Andy Stewart both made positive contributions to the team during their appearances. Russell made a fine unbeaten 64 against Uni of NSW, whilst Andy made a quickfire 46 against Fairfield. I am sure I speak on behalf of everyone at Manly in wishing the "Big Fella" all the best with his new career in Perth.

The Fourth Grade report would not be complete without me making mention of Greg Hayes. The "Malta" was a fine team man with bat and ball and a great help to me as captain. Week in and week out his literary contribution was a constant source of inspiration to the team. His innings of 86 against Petersham was one of the highlights of the season. Hayesy was also team "treasurer", and his diligent collection of the fines incurred by all players ensured the end of season dinner was well sponsored.

A club and its teams cannot function without a lot of behind the scenes support. In this respect I must thank the Nealons, Clemows, Curries, Reeves', Bradstreets and my father "Banjo" for their support at matches, Sam Mesite for his help as Chairman of Selectors and Gary Flowers and the Committee for placing their faith in me.

Finally, I offer my congratulations to Simon Couch and the Green Shield team for bringing the Shield to Manly for the first time since 1959-60.

Looking forward to seeing you all for the 1992-93 season.

FIFTH GRADE REPORT 1991/92 SEASON

The 1991/92 season for Fifth Grade was a fairly frustrating one. We lost 10 out of 26 scheduled playing days to rain and with only 3 home games all season, we saw quite a bit of Sydney. We ended with five wins (one outright), six first innings losses and four abandoned matches to finish around mid-way on the table with 34 points. I felt this was a fairly creditable performance for a relatively young and inexperienced team.

There were some good individual performances during the season. Mat Phillips, Paul Brenner and Neil Gray all registered maiden centuries for the Club.

Neil had an outstanding year to top the averages with 329 runs at an average of nearly 50. He was a very solid and dependable opener who thoroughly earned his promotion to Fourth Grade. With just a little more aggressive approach, he will become a very useful player.

Of the younger players, Darren Reeve looked an outstanding prospect and predictably he passed through Fifth Grade very quickly, while Paul Brenner despite an unsettling season where he was chopping and changing between Fourth and Fifth Grade, batted very aggressively and well for us on a number of occasions. He looks a good prospect.

Of the others, Mat Phillips started well with 101* in the first round before suffering a back injury, and Neville Contractor showed a nice technique and quite a bit of promise without converting some good starts into big scores. Matthew Todd also played a couple of very aggressive innings.

Tony Scanlon started the season in excellent touch and played a big part in our early wins, but was unlucky to end up batting on a string of rain affected wickets mid season. Tony was however a source of a lot of good advice to me and to the younger batsmen in the team and I'm sure next season will bring better things for him.

All-rounder Pat Kelly was a big improver, particularly with the ball, where he bowled his medium pacers very effectively and exploited some damp tracks. Pat also hit the ball very hard when he batted, and I was pleased to see him earn promotion last season.

Quickies Michael Osbourne, Morgan Youell and Paul Petersen all tried hard. "Sticks" and Morgan in particular bowled quite a bit better than their figures suggested, with Sticks' efforts against Gordon and Mosman being excellent. Paul Petersen just couldn't get it together in the early matches and seemed to tense up a bit in the middle. Nevertheless he simply kept on trying and working in the nets all year, and everyone was absolutely delighted to see him bowl so well in the final match against Waverley.

A new comer to the Club this year was "Leggie" Andrew Barker. "Elvis" bowled extremely well and not many of the players that faced him had much idea how to handle his flighty deliveries. He took a bit of stick in later games but always looked to be a potential wicket-taker. A tremendously enthusiastic team man, Andrew made a valuable contribution to us last year and deservedly took out the bowling average.

Keeping duties were shared around. Andy Stewart, Scanners and Mat Phillips all did a pretty good job.

I was lucky to be in charge of a very pleasant group of young players during the season. I can't recall a single unpleasant incident on or off the field and I thank everyone who played with us for their efforts. Special thanks too to Sam Mesite for the great efforts he constantly put in to help find players to fill the gaps left by the inevitable last minute drop-outs we experienced.

POIDEVIN GRAY REPORT 1991/92 SEASON

This year's Poidevin Gray competition saw a change of format from previous years, in that there would be seven rounds played in place of the usual nine. This meant that even more so this year one loss could spell disaster.

The side remained basically unchanged from last years, losing Warren Evans and Todd Bartlett, while gaining Paul Wilson and Brendan Shoebridge.

We started off on a positive note with a convincing win over Hawkesbury at home, thank God. Batting first we posted a good score of 253 off our allotted 60 overs. The run getters were Brad Pamp 46, Anthony Morton 40 and Shawn Bradstreet with a magnificent 100, his maiden for the Club. Hawkesbury started their chase well and had the Manly boys worried at 3/142, of 30 overs. A super tight spell of one day bowling by Shawn Bradstreet 5/46 and Jason Marin 3/50 soon followed and brought the visitors back in line. As a result of this pressure bowling and fielding, the Hawkesbury batting crumbled. In the end, they managed 182 of 58 overs, notching up our first win.

The next round against Balmain was a wash out.

Our next match against Penrith would prove to be the high point of our season. After losing the toss, we bowled first on what was a very tame Manly wicket. In a reversal of the first match, we bowled far too loosely and were unable to keep the Penrith side under any sustained pressure. They took full toll of our wayward bowling, finishing with 5/245. A hundred run opening partnership saw us get away to a good start. However, the quick removal of our next three batsmen saw us looking down the barrel of our first loss. Brad Pamp and Craig Glassock fortunately restored order and began what would be a match winning partnership. Craig was the next to depart for 48, leaving Manly with 72 runs off 9 overs to win. Pampy kept us in touch for the next 7 overs, creatively picking off the loose ball for 4 or 6. Time was running out and we needed 23 off 2 overs. Brad continued to swing from the hip, and in one over, which included 2 enormous sixes, left Manly with only 5 runs to win off the last over. "Blocker" Wilson hit the winning runs giving us a memorable victory.

Our round four match against North Sydney can only be described as a missed opportunity. We needed only 173 off 60 overs for victory, after a very good performance with the ball in the morning session. Shawn Bradstreet 3/49 off 26 overs was our best bowler. After looking a sure bet at 4/11 with 20 overs to go, we had somewhat of a major collapse. In the end we finished with just 138, with the last four wickets falling for just one run. Top scorers were Craig Glassock 45 and Shawn Bradstreet 36.

Round 5 was a wash out.

If the match against Penrith was our high point for the season, then our next match against Gordon was definitely our low point. We went into the match with the omission of both our opening bowlers (Shawn Bradstreet and Paul Wilson) and after losing the toss, and looking down at the pitch, it was obvious we were going to be in for a long day in the field. Using seven different bowlers we perservered, but the Gordon batsmen took full advantage of the favourable conditions. All we could do was wait for the nightmare to finish. At least Pampy could see the funny side of the proceedings and reminded his team mates on numerous occasions. Gordon finished with 9/359, Brad Pamp being our best bowler 3/30 off 5 overs. With 6 runs an over in the back of our minds, we started off on course posting a quick 80 off 12 overs. Although batting commendably, we eventually fell short of our target ending up all out in the 56th over, for 268. Brad Pamp 44 and Craig Glassock 28 once again batted well, but Brendan Shoebridge took the batting honours with a swashbuckling century.

Our last match would see us play Parramatta. Batting first, and with the overs reduced by 5, we struggled to make 9/160 on what was a difficult Manly wicket. Shawn Bradstreet continued his form with the bat notching up a patient 57, Sean Parkinson also chipped in with 18. Unfortunately the rain that interrupted much of the morning's play came back to finish the job, preventing any play after lunch.

So all in all it was a mixed season, we started off strongly but then lost it in the second half of the competition. Once again it was a team that had the potential to go all the way but unfortunately it wasn't to be this year. Maybe it was one too many dinners at the Manly Italian!

I would like to thank Donny "Dollars" for doing another commendable job as scorer. His advice and assistance during the year was much appreciated. Thanks also to Billy Bradstreet, manager, and Mark Hope our coach, who both gave up their Sundays to help our cause. Once again the afternoon teas were superb. Thank you to the parents and supporters involved.

Lastly, with this season being my last in Poido's, I would like to thank all the guys themselves for a very enjoyable season. I would like to wish next year's side the best of luck, I am sure you will be extremely competitive.

It was once more a pleasure to lead the side, thank you for your support, and let's not forget that sensational win over Penrith.

Cheers

A.W. GREEN SHIELD REPORT 1991/92 SEASON

1991/92 saw an extremely determined and enthusiastic Manly Green Shield Squad take the field. This was to be the most successful Manly team since Mike Pawley's 1959/60 side were Premiers. A great amount of time and effort was spent in selecting a well balanced squad of 17 players.

After being undefeated in 3 trial games, the side went into its first match against a highly rated Penrith team. After some tight bowling from Colin Beashel and Hamish McDonald, Penrith were restricted to a total of 8-222. Manly scored the required runs with ease, with Brian Clemow, Murray Cox and Darren Reeves being the main contributors.

Our second match saw us take on Gosford at Manly. With good bowling performances from Steven Riches and Simon Couch, Gosford were dismissed for 147. Manly passed Gosford's total 6 wickets down with Matthew Cranney, Darren Reeves and Steve Riches performing well with the bat.

We played North Sydney in our third game and scored a convincing win. Manly compiled 236 with Brian Clemow and Andrew Nealon the main contributors. North Sydney were routed for a mere 56 with Ben Keens, Simon Couch and Colin Beashel the destroyers for Manly.

We then met undefeated Gordon at Chatswood Oval and performed extremely well. Batting first we managed 6 for 300 from 60 overs with Murray Cox scoring a century and good contributions from Reeves, Contractor and Couch. After a steady start, Gordon collapsed after some tight bowling from Riches, Betteridge and Couch. Manly still undefeated and going strong!

In our next game against Northern Districts, Manly's top order failed for the first time leaving us in disarray at 4 for 20. Our middle order saved the day with Couch, Keens and Nealon setting up a certain victory with a total of 8-225. The bowlers once again performed very well dismissing N.D.'s for 150.

Our final preliminary round saw us defeat a keen Mosman side at Manly Oval. Batting first, Manly compiled 7-234 with strong performances from Keens, Reeves and Nealon setting up the good total. Mosman were restricted to 134 with the Couch/Nealon combination creating havoc. Ben Keens also bowled well.

After a rain interrupted semi-final against Petersham, Manly progressed to the final to meet Randwick at Bankstown Oval. Simon Couch won his sixth toss and decided to bat. After a good start from Clemow and Cranney, Manly lost 4 quick wickets (2 run outs) to be shaky at 4-40. Simon Couch and Andrew Nealon steadied the innings with a 105 run partnership, followed by good hitting from Riches and Betteridge in the final stages of the innings. Manly finished with 209. Randwick were under pressure from the beginning and this proved too much for them as they were dismissed for a mere 45 runs from 34 overs. Superb bowling from Beashel, Keens, Cox and Betteridge, backed up by great fielding and teamwork, combined to shut Randwick out of the game and give Manly victory in the 1991/92 A.W. Green Shield.

An exceptional performance in all games by wicketkeeper Nealon was also instrumental in our success.

A most important factor in our success was the team spirit in the 17 man squad with every member contributing 100% at all times.

Many thanks to members of the grade club who showed keen interest and support throughout the series and to our coaches, Bob Kennedy, Bob Lind and Mark Hope. Finally, thanks must also go to our team sponsor, Sol Contractor.

MANLY PRESIDENT'S XI -v- SRI LANKA

February 16th 1992 was the date and Manly Oval was the scene, for the World Cup warm up match between the touring Sri Lankans and an elite Manly President's XI. After many months of negotiations between our Club, the Australian Cricket Board and the Sri Lankan Cricket Board, the all clear was given only three weeks before the scheduled match date. Sri Lankan born businessman, Dilip Kumar from Peninsula Holden instigated initial talks with the Sri Lankan Board and the Club thanks him for his assistance in staging the match. Dilip's company, Peninsula Holden, was also the match day sponsor, with contributions also from The Communications Depot, Air Lanka and A Taste of India.

A special match committee was formed, led by Club President, Gary Flowers, and amazing feats were performed in what minimal time there was left to convene the match, the most prominent being the side Gary had assembled which consisted of nine players with first class experience including three ex-Test players in Chris Broad, David Capel and Greg Dyer. The side was captained by Manly's Phil Marks and included state squad players Geoff Milliken, Brad Macnamara, Greg McLay, Phil Alley, Andrew Jones as well as our own local stars Greg Hill and Shawn Bradstreet.

They were up against a very talented and enthusiastic Sri Lankan side led by Aravinda de Silva, who were keen to make an early impression in their quest for the prestigious World Cup.

Not since Manly played host to the Aboriginal XI -v- Prime Minister's XI game in January 1988, had a sporting fixture of such prominence come to Manly. The local newspapers, The Manly Daily and The Northern Beaches Weekender, gave us tremendous assistance toward the promotion of the match and a bumper crowd was expected.

After a week of rain, match day arrived and it was a great sense of relief to be greeted with blue skies and plenty of sunshine. By the time Phil Marks tossed the coin with the Sri Lankan captain, Aravinda de Silva, over 3500 people enthusiasts had packed themselves into the Village Green, many of them being vocal Sri Lankans who had come to cheer their idols.

Unfortunately, the President's XI lost the toss and were invited to have first use of a moist wicket which was to provide more movement than an earthquake. Only a gutsy partnership between Greg Dyer and Shawn Bradstreet saved the President's XI from total disaster, eventually reaching 130 at the completion of their allotted 50 overs. The highlight was the brilliant fielding performance of the Sri Lankans who held some remarkable catches.

The Sri Lankans, certainly enjoying the better of the conditions, needed only 29 overs to amass the required runs for victory losing only two wickets in the process. Aravinda played a gem of a little innings displaying much of his undoubted class, with poor Shawn Bradstreet being the recipient of his aggression which included a huge six into the tennis courts.

The day was a most enjoyable one for all concerned and the Club was very honoured to have been granted permission by the ACB to host the fixture. Members of the ACB were impressed with the organisation of the day, and the Club is presently seeking their permission to play host to an international cricket match at the picturesque Manly Oval on an annual basis.

MANLY WARRINGAH DISTRICT CRICKET CLUB

COACHING & DEVELOPMENT REPORT

TO THE N.S.W.C.A.

In accordance with the guidelines set out by the N.S.W.C.A. we submit the following as a summary of the Manly Warringah District Cricket Club's Coaching & Development Programme Activities that have been undertaken for the 1991/92 season.

1. Junior Club Promotional Visits & Coaching Clinics

This year 18 players spread across all the grades participated in 22 promotional visits and skill development coaching clinics for Junior Clubs in the District.

All sessions were based upon skill development activities for batting, bowling and fielding according to the ages and ability of those that attended. In total about 1000 Junior cricketers ranging from Kangas to U/16's participated.

In addition to this, teams were invited to have tea with the First XI at home games. This enabled the boys to place faces with names they had read about in the Manly Daily, and to encourage them to set their sights on one day playing for Manly.

The player of the round for that team was presented with a miniature cricket bat with the players signatures during the interval.

By the season's end no fewer than 80 cricketers had tea with the First XI.

2. Manly Warringah Junior Cricket Association Representative Teams Development Camp, 15-17 November 1991

In association with the M.W.J.C.A. Representative Team Committee, M.W.D.C.C. players assisted in conducting specialist coaching activities during the live-in camp that was held at NSW Academy of Sport, Narrabeen. In total 80 players attended the camp.

Each of the Junior players were presented with their representative caps and shirts by M.W.D.C.C. player Greg Hill at a capping ceremony held at the camp.

3. Kanga - Cricket Demonstration

On Sunday 16th February 1992 80 Kanga Cricketers played a series of demonstration games during the luncheon interval at the Sri Lanka v Presidents XI Match at Manly Oval. This display attracted a crowd of approximately 2000 and was well received by the public and players.

4. Community Visits

On December 4th & 5th a Juggler, Nick Fury and Club Coach, Mark Hope visited Stewart House and The Royal Far West Home to promote ball skills and stimulate an interest in cricket at those schools. This excited and entertained 100 children from underprivileged families of the NSW outback.

5. Intra District Primary & Secondary School Competition

For the 12th season in succession M.W.D.C.C. conducted a successful Intra District Primary & Secondary School Cricket competition. These competitions have been keenly contested by more than 20 schools in the district.

6. Level 0 (Orientation) Coaching Course

On Wednesday, December 11 M.W.D.C.C. Coaching & Development Panel members, David Patterson, Mark Hope and Tony Scanlon conducted a Level 0 Coaching Course for interested players in the Club. 10 players attended the course and consequently have been used as coaches for the clinics that we have conducted.

7. Skills Coaching

Club Coach, Mark Hope attended all M.W.D.C.C. training sessions and dealt specifically with individual skills development on all facets of the game. His expertise and tuition contributed greatly to the improved standings and performances of the Manly Club this season. Mark also assisted the Green Shield team at their practices and matches. Their success in winning the competition is due in part to his efforts.

8. Specialist Coaching

Former NSW Sheffield Cricketer and Manly First XI Captain, Mick Pawley attended a M.W.D.C.C. practice session and provided specialist coaching to all the spinners in the Club. His knowledge of the games is unquestionable and all of the players benefited greatly from his assistance.

9. Training & Fitness Co-Ordinator

Conscious of the need for a high level of physical fitness and structured well organised practice sessions, M.W.D.C.C. appointed Damien Bray as "Training & Fitness Co-Ordinator". Damien had immense experience as a fitness instructor and a background as a former Sydney Swan player.

Damien conducted fitness training during the pre-season and with the assistance of David Patterson developed a tabloid which encompassed both skill development drills and fitness. This gave players who were not batting or bowling in the nets purposeful and intense training activities in the field.

10. Green Shield

This season Manly embarked on a highly structured campaign aimed at winning the competition. Pre-season selection trials commenced in October and from an initial squad of 40 players, 17 were selected.

The practice sessions were conducted with the assistance of Mark Hope and Sheffield Shield player Michael Bevan. There was strong emphasis placed in skills development during all of these sessions.

At the season's end 12 players from the squad were flown to Queensland to play a match against Brisbane Cricket Association's equivalent U/16 competition premiers Wynnum Manly.

11. Off Season Development Programme

An off season development programme will be initiated by the M.W.D.C.C.

OBJECTIVES

1. To develop First Grade cricketers for M.W.D.C.C.
2. To develop First Class cricketers from M.W.D.C.C.
3. To assist individuals in increasing their cricket skills to a higher level.

RATIONALE

A 5th placing in both 1st and 2nd Grade, together with a 7th placing in 3rd Grade and a Green Shield Premiership demonstrated a significant improvement on 1990-91 and the potential for even greater success next season.

The club believes that an Off Season Development Programme, if successfully implemented, is a pro-active initiative that can lead to an improvement in our performances in all Grades next season.

PROGRAMME DETAILS

1. All interested players will meet twice a week from the 1st week in June.
Session 1: Sunday mornings at NSW Sports Academy Narrabeen.
Session 2: Wednesday night Manly Indoor Sports Centre.
2. The programme will be of twelve weeks duration, continuing until the trials begin in late August.
3. The programme is open to all current M.W.D.C.C. players.

PROGRAMME PERSONEL

1. M.W.D.C.C. Coaching Panel members.
2. Two Level 3 coaches will attend each session. The emphasis will be on "one on one " coaching with skills development.
3. Guest coaches will be invited to attend some sessions who are specialists in their field.

EQUIPMENT

It is proposed to purchase the following equipment to ensure the success of the programme.

1. Balls, stumps and wickets hats.
2. Bowling machine. Either purchase or hire from club members who possess one.
3. Video Equipment. A video camera, play back machine (Sony slv x50as) and television monitor. Each player is expected to provide their own VHS video cassettes.
4. Testing Equipment. Basic equipment for fitness testing such as stopwatches, measuring tapes, callipers and measuring wheel.

CLUB SPONSORED KNOCK-OUT COMPETITIONS

The Manly-Warringah District Cricket Club continues its policy of encouraging inter-school cricket competition in the Manly Warringah area. For many, this is the only inter-school competition in which they participate.

The Club deserves congratulations for its promotion in schools of our national game. In an age when great demands and expectations are being placed on schools, their students and teachers, it is heartening to know that the Club continues to encourage one of the best team games in the country.

The three sponsored competitions are:-

1. Primary Cup for primary schools.
2. Manly Shield for secondary schools, age under 15.
3. Manly Cup for secondary schools, open age.

PRIMARY CUP

Fourteen teams entered the 1991 Competition which was won by Mimosa Public School. This was the "hat trick" for the school, having won also in 1989 and 1990. Outstanding player for the winners was Mark Turner who was selected for the N.S.W. primary schools team. Congratulations to the school and Mark.

MANLY SHIELD

This 40 overs knock-out competition is for secondary school boys under 15 years of age. Eight schools entered teams and the final was played on Graham Reserve between St. Augustines College and Cromer High. Congratulations to St. Augustines who recorded their first win. The college was also runner-up in the primary schools' competition.

MANLY CUP

The open age competition for secondary schools attracted eight entries. Rain disrupted the competition and the final between Davidson High and Narrabeen High was twice washed out.

An "out-of-season" attempt to get a result will be tried and failing that, the match will be held over until the start of the 1992/93 season.

My thanks to all the team managers, principals of schools, the executive of the Manly Club and all the boys who participated. Special thanks to Graham Phillips for co-ordinating the primary schools' competition and for his offer to continue in that role for 1992.
